8. BUSINESS ARISING
  - a. Nancy Toppings introduced Leander Dueck, the founder and manager of Beyond Wealth, which manages the SMFA Trust Funds and various other non profit organizations. Leander Dueck stated that they are the custodians of the portfolio, working towards the preservation of the capital and minimizing the down risk. He reported that the portfolio is doing extremely well and exceeded the TSX by 3% last year. Leander Dueck recommended that the portfolio be rebalanced in the next 60 days to protect its diversification.

9. NEW BUSINESS

- a. 2015 Shurniak Concerto Competition will be held on February 21-22, 2015, in Saskatoon at the Quance Theatre at the University of Saskatchewan. The judges will be Jasper Wood (violinist, teaching at UBC), Karen Finnsson (Woodwinds, Professor at the University of Regina), and Mark Turner (Executive Director of the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra).
- b. 2015 Provincial Finals Competition will be held June 5-7, in Saskatoon at the University of Saskatchewan.
- c. Carol Donhauser made reference to the Syllabus and Directory Changes and Corrections that were distributed. These changes would be beneficial to be included in the adjudicator's briefing. Carol Donhauser also noted that the Directory will no longer include the local festival information, this will be found on-line. Also, this is the last year of the current 2013-2015 Syllabus.

MOTION: Robin Swales/Diane Swanson to increase the adjudicator daily rate from $300 to $350, effective the 2015/2016 operating year. CARRIED

MOTION: Sherri Singer/Linda Alberts to increase travel compensation for adjudicators, board, and staff from $.40/km to $.42/km, effective 2015/2106 operating year. CARRIED

- d. Anita Kuntz spoke to the need to fundraise to make our local festivals viable and to look into the possibility of raising entry fees. Scholarships are also important at the local level and how, with simply approaching people regarding scholarships, you may find they do want to donate. In return you need to acknowledge them as they wish, and have recipients send them thank you notes. Anita also suggested that locals or regions could entertain the idea of providing a provincial scholarship.
- e. Laureen Kells, President, brought greetings from the Saskatchewan Registered Music Teachers' Association (SRMTA).
- f. Joy McFarlane-Burton made the 3rd call for nominations from the floor. There were none. Joy declared, "If not, nominations are closed." Joy declared the election by acclamation of both nominees, Wendy Thienes and Kelly Stein.

Saskatchewan Music Festival Association
Annual General Meeting Minutes
November 15, 2014

Wendy Thienes outlined her involvement locally in the Shaunavon area which highlights children, community, and culture. Kelly Stein outlined her involvement locally in the Watrous area which involves Music for Young Children and teaching piano.

- g. Sandra Kerr presented the Best Program Award to the Unity Music Festival. Sandra noted that it fulfilled the criteria of having the SMFA logo on the front cover and the program had included all the mandatory advertisements and logos.

10. OTHER BUSINESS

- a. Acknowledgements were given by Karen MacCallum to the staff of SMFA, Carol Donhauser and Sandra Kerr for all their tireless and amazing work for the SMFA.
- b. Retiring Board members, Anita Kuntz and Joy McFarlane-Burton were thanked for their contributions to the SMFA and parting gifts were presented.

Karen MacCallum adjourned the meeting at 1:20 p.m.
