Rescheduling Policy:

When participants find themselves unable to perform in their assigned time, requests will be dealt with in the following manner: Personal scheduling conflicts: The PAKMF Executive is unable to respond to these requests for a number of reasons. Changes to the program may impact other individuals. In addition, over the course of the music festival, many personal scheduling conflicts arise, and it is not possible to re-schedule to accommodate all of these conflicts. The appropriate discipline coordinator should be contacted as soon as possible to make a request of this nature. If the participant is the only person in a class, the whole class will, if possible, be moved to a new time slot. If the participant is one of a class of two or more, the participant will, if possible, be moved to a new time slot for adjudication only. Requests not referenced above may be made and will be handled at the discretion of the PAKMF Executive. There will be no refunds provided due to rescheduling requests.
