Dear Music Festival Participants and Parents,

The Shaunavon and District Music Festival will take place during the week of March 30th. Please remember that the entry deadline closes on February 17, 2020.

Our volunteer recruiter Elizabeth Christensen will be in contact with you in the near future to ask for your help in working as a door person, adjudicator's helper, or a session coordinator. If you are unable to volunteer, we would appreciate a name and contact number for someone who could take your place. We are willing to train people in these roles if you have not done them in the past. Also, if you or anyone you know would be available to be an adjudicator's helper for one or more full days that would be a huge help.

During session breaks, cookies and squares are served to participants and audience members in attendance. We ask that each family please bring two dozen cookies or squares to the United Church on Monday March 30 if possible, or to the first session that they will be attending for the week.

We need your Help

Our Board consists of 7 people. Some of our Board is looking at stepping down. We are in need of volunteers to come to our meetings and we need volunteers to show some interest for any positions that may come available! We only meet 3 or 4 times a year, the commitment is very minimal but it is essential to the life of our Shaunavon & District Music Festival.
